THE QUALITY GROCERS,

MASONIC TEMPLE BUILDING

JUNE IN KENTUCKY.

Queen of months,
Our lovely Fairy Queen!
Thy magic wand, sunshine and shower
Decks shrub and tree with leaf and flower,
Thou merry June.

Thy sunny days are full of joy,
And quiet peace without alloy;
The fragrance of thy blossoms are Beyond compare.
Thou laughing June.

On zephyrs soft that fan the cheek,
Float joyous hirsongs gay and sweet,
With tender trills to brooding mate;
Oh, fair indeed is our dear State,
While thou dost feel June.

THE HEAVIEST TICKET

Taft and Sherman Weigh In at 500 Pounds

In spite of the fact that Secretary Taft has often laughingly declared that "No real gentleman weighs more than 300 pounds," his solid bulk, combined with the compact frame of his running mate, James S. Sherman, makes the heaviest ticket ever put forward by any National party. The two men together tip the scales at something not far short of 500 pounds.

The record before this was held by the Democrats on the strength of the avoirdupois of Grover Cleveland.

When nominated in 1892 Mr. Cleveland weighed about 275 pounds, but the small figure of Adlai Stevenson kept the total around 425 pounds.

The exact weight of the big Secretary is not known, though the popular guess is not far short of the "limit of gentility" set by himself. Mr. Sherman weighs a good 200 pounds.

The fifth State Encampment of United Spanish War Veterans, Department of Kentucky, will be held in Lexington July 4th.

Friends of Ruby Laffoon of Madisonville are urging him to go to the Legislature from Hopkins county and become a candidate for the Speakership of the next House. Mr. Laffoon is now County Attorney of Hopkins, and was the Democratic nominee for State Treasurer on the last State ticket.

SUNDAY'S ECLIPSE

Get Your Smoked Glass Ready to See the Sun's Shape

For more than three hours next Sunday morning Old Sol will go into partial eclipse and his face will be almost obscured when the eclipse is at its height. The eclipse will be visible throughout all of North America, South of latitude 60, South America, North of the Equator, parts of the Atlantic and Pacific oceans, Southwestern Europe and West Africa.

The fact that the moon is now almost at its greatest distance from the earth will cause it to appear directly in front of the sun, though it will not conceal it. Across Mexico, the Gulf and Florida, the eclipse will be most nearly total, the area where a central observation may be made being about 300 miles wide.

The eclipse will begin about 8:30 a. m., Maysville time, and will reach its greatest degree at 10:36 o'clock. The eclipse will end at 12:13 p. m. When the eclipse is at its height about three-fourths of the face of the sun will be covered and the greater part of the United States will pass into semi-obscurity.

The eclipse will begin at the right edge of the sun and will gradually cover the lower part of the disc. At its height the moon will transform the sun into a crescent of a width about a third the diameter of the sun. The shape of the sun will be readily seen through smoked glasses.

Restonville has been made a Money Order Postoffice.

DOVER BANK FAILURE

Amount Lost By Fawcett's Default Placed at $6,000

The Citizens' Bank of Dover, which failed as a result of D. A. Fawcett's connection with it and debt to it and whose affairs are now in the hands of the Assignee, will probably not be opened. The Dover News has the following to say in regard to the Bank's condition—

"The losses of the Dover Bank through the failure of the Aberdeen Bank will probably reach $4,100, which loss will fall upon the stockholders, who are liable for double the amount of the stock they hold.

"Receiver Anderson and Cashier Bruce Rist, President Frazee and other officers of the Bank opened the safe Tuesday afternoon and examined the contents. While a minute schedule of assets and liabilities has not yet been made or given out, yet enough is known to show that all of the securities of the Bank are intact, the cash on hand tallying with the books, and that the condition of the Dover Bank is much less serious than was feared. Except for the loss through the failure of the Aberdeen Bank—between $4,000 and $5,000 and about $1,700 in the Buckingham Bank—the affairs of the Dover Bank are perfectly straight. All this loss will fall upon the stockholders, and the depositors will be paid in full as rapidly as the securities can be realized upon.

"Only half the stock of the Bank had been paid in—$7,500. A call had already been made for the balance of the stock, payable July 1st. This call for payment of stock still holds and must be met. It is believed this will be more than enough to settle all claims, in which case the balance will be returned to the stockholders. If not enough, another assessment will have to be made, as stockholders are liable for double the amount of their stock.

"While the closing of the Bank will be a severe blow to the thirty or forty stockholders of the concern the depositors will be paid in full. The worst feature of the affair is the fact that Dover is deprived of banking facilities, and the conveniences of an institution that should and would have thrived but for the unfortunate downfall of one man connected with it."

Those who pay as they go find the going pleasant.

THE Louisville Herald is the strongest ally the Democrats have at present in Kentucky in the effort to carry the State Democratic. Its daily editorials for the past week or two have been the strongest kind of argument as to why Mr. Taft and his forces should be defeated. It is to be hoped that The Herald will keep up the good work.—Hartford Herald.

THE death yesterday of former President STEPHEN GROVER CLEVELAND removes from the stage of action a typical American citizen and the foremost Democrat of that brand of politics. As President, he displayed remarkable qualities of statesmanship, and stood alone as the one individual who grew in greatness as his party repudiated him. His eminent place in history will be duly recognized.

ANOTHER GAME

The Elks to Line Up July 4th to Play Ball

The Early Years of

Grover Cleveland

His Birth in Caldwell, N. J., His School Days, His Legal Career, His Rise to the Governorship of New York and His Defeat of James G. Blaine for the Presidency in 1884.

WHEN the pastor of the Presbyterian church in the little town of Caldwell, N. J., in 1837 bestowed upon one of his babies the name of the Rev. Stephen Grover, a predecessor in the same pulpit, he probably entertained not the remotest dream that the boy would grow up to discard his first name and become known in world history as Grover Cleveland, twice president of the United States and for the remainder of his life "the most distinguished private citizen in the world."

The Rev. Stephen F. Cleveland and his wife, who was Ann Neal, daughter of a Baltimore merchant, had a large family of children. Three years after Grover was born the family migrated, as preachers' families are wont to do.

Parson Cleveland became pastor at Fayetteville, N. Y., and later at Clinton, N. Y. The father died when Grover was in his sixteenth year. The family home was then and until the widow Cleveland died in 1882 at Holland Patent, N. Y.

Grover Cleveland attended academics at Fayetteville and Clinton. He had an early ambition to go through Princeton college, but lacked the funds. He became clerk and later assistant teacher in the New York Institution For the Blind, New York city.

Fanny Crosby, the celebrated blind hymn writer, was a teacher in the same school. She and Grover became warm friends. In her reminiscences Miss Crosby writes:

He seemed a very gentle but intensely ambitious boy. Among other very pleasant characteristics which I noticed in him as a careful, hard-working, but not brilliant, lawyer. He had no pyrotechnic, ornamental side. He simply attended to business. Though the Republican state ticket carried Buffalo by more than 1,000 votes, Cleveland was elected mayor by a majority of 3,530. Early in his term he became known as "the veto mayor."

He vetoed many extravagant appropriation bills and saved his city at least $1,000,000.

The state of New York soon heard much of this veto mayor. He had been in office less than a year when the Democrats nominated him for governor. New York had not elected a Democratic governor since before the civil war. The Republicans nominated Charles J. Folger, secretary of the treasury in President Arthur's cabinet. Mr. Folger was regarded as a particularly strong candidate, yet Cleveland was elected governor by a plurality of 102,854 over Folger and by a clear majority of 151,742 over all the candidates. Just after he voted on election day he wrote to his brother, the Rev. William Cleveland:

If mother were alive, I should be writing to her, and I feel as if it were a time for me to write to some one who will believe what I write. . . . I will tell you first of all others the policy I intend to adopt, and that is to make the matter a business engagement between the people and myself, in which the obligation on my side is to perform the duties assigned me with an eye single to the interests of my employers. I shall have no idea of reelection or of any high political preferment in my head, but be very thankful and happy if I serve one term as the people's governor. Do you know that if mother were alive I should feel so much was a disposition to help others whenever possible. Knowing that it was a great favor to me to have my poems copied neatly and legibly, he offered to perform that service for me, and I several times availed myself of his aid.

One day the principal of the school upbraided the blind woman for using the clerk's time in that way. Grover told Miss Crosby that she had a perfect right to employ him in that capacity, inasmuch as her poems were used in the school and also helped to make the institution better known. He advised her to give the principal some "plain prose" the next time he should reproach her. When the official remonstrated a second time, Miss Crosby stood for her rights and won the battle.

When Cleveland was about eighteen years old, he paid a visit to an uncle living in Buffalo. The uncle induced the boy to remain and help him in compiling the "American Herd Book."

Grover assisted in several editions of this work, studied law and was admitted to the bar at the age of twenty-two. His first official position was that of assistant district attorney, which he held for three years, during the civil war. Two of his brothers were in the army. Grover was helping to support his mother and sisters. His salary was small. When he was drafted to military service, he hired a substitute and remained at work. Later he was a candidate for the district attorneyship, but was defeated. Then he settled down to law practice. In 1870 he was induced to run for sheriff and was elected, serving for three years.

After another interval of private citizenship, assiduously devoted to his profession, this bachelor lawyer of forty-four years was nominated for mayor of Buffalo on the Democratic ticket in 1881. He had become known safer. I have always thought that her prayers had much to do with my successes. I shall expect you to help me in that way.

Governor Cleveland was precisely like Mayor Cleveland. He was a business governor. It was said of him that he ran the state as he would have run a railroad, mastering the details of the business so that he could run it well. The same writer declares that "he not only preached economy, but he made the state officials practice it. He vetoed bills until the legislators were wild with rage, and he forced through civil service reform."

Grover Cleveland was cordially disliked by the politicians in his party. But his reputation among the people as a plain, practicable, businesslike executive had grown so wide that in the summer of 1884, before the expiration of his gubernatorial term, there was an insistent call for him to accept that "high political preferment" which in the letter to his brother he had declared was not in his head. The great mass of the Democracy throughout the country believed that Cleveland was honest and that nothing could turn him aside from a course which he believed to be right. He was nominated for president at the Chicago convention of 1884, his Republican opponent being James G. Blaine. Mr. Cleveland received a small plurality of the popular vote and an electoral majority of thirty-seven. For the first time since 1856 the Democratic party had carried the presidential election. A man who two years before was unknown beyond his own city and county, a painstaking, laborious lawyer, a ponderous, heavy set "old bachelor," had entered the lists and swept to defeat "the plumed knight" of twenty years' national renown.

HIDDEN DANGERS.

Nature Gives Timely Warnings That No Mayvite Citizen Can Afford to Ignore.

DANGER SIGNAL No. 1 comes from the kidney secretions. They will warn you when the kidneys are sick. Well kidneys excrete a clear, amber fluid. Sick kidneys send out a thin, pale and foamy or a thick, red, ill-smelling urine, full of sediment and irregular of passage.

DANGER SIGNAL No. 2 comes from the back. Back pains, dull and heavy or sharp and acute tell you of sick kidneys and warn you of the approach of dropsy, diabetes and Bright's disease. Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys and cure them permanently.

Here's Mayville proof:

Mrs. Harvey Lyons, living in the Western part of Mayville, Ky., says: "In my estimation Doan's Kidney Pills are an ideal kidney remedy, and I have no hesitancy in so expressing myself. My husband was bothered a great deal by a severe pain across his back, and although his condition was never so serious that he was obliged to lay off from work, he nevertheless was in misery. An added source of annoyance was the irregular action of the kidney secretions, this symptom denoting that his trouble arose from disordered kidneys. Being advised to try Doan's Kidney Pills, he procured a supply at J. J. Wood & Son's Drugstore, and they acted just as beneficially in his case as in many others that he had read about. A short use entirely cured him, and up to the present time there has been no return of the trouble. Recently I was suddenly afflicted with a similar trouble, but began taking Doan's Kidney Pills, and from the beneficial result already received I look forward to a complete cure."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

PRINCETON, N. J., June 24th.—Grover Cleveland, former President of the United States, died suddenly at his home at Westland here at 8:40 this morning. Death was due to heart failure, complicated with other diseases. The passing away of Mr. Cleveland was not immediately announced, but was delayed until an official statement had been prepared by the physicians who had been attending him in the various periods of his illness.

While Mr. Cleveland had been seriously ill from time to time, the announcement of his death came like a thunderbolt to those who had been watching his illness. Last night there was a feeling among the friends of the Cleveland family that something was seriously wrong with the ex-President. This was occasioned by a visit of Dr. Bryant of New York, Mr. Cleveland's physician for many years. Mrs. Cleveland later in the evening, disclosing Dr. Bryant's visit, said that there was no occasion for alarm and that Mr. Cleveland was getting along nicely. This reassurance totally unprepared their friends for the announcement of his death.

Mrs. Cleveland was at home when her distinguished husband passed away. The children are at the Cleveland summer home at Tamworth, N. H., in charge of Mrs. Perrine, Mrs. Cleveland's mother. The Cleveland family came here from Lakewood, where the former President lay sick for many weeks, on June 1st, and intended to go to their summer home as soon as Mr. Cleveland had gained sufficient strength to travel.

The funeral will be held on Friday, June 26th, at Westland, Mr. Cleveland's residence on Bayard Lane, Princeton, and will be strictly private.

OYSTER BAY, June 24th.—President Roosevelt will not attend the Yale-Harvard boat race at New London Thursday, owing to the death of former President Grover Cleveland. President Roosevelt sent a message of condolence to Mrs. Cleveland and expressed his intention of attending the funeral, if it takes place on any other day than Saturday, when he has an important conference. Following precedents, President Roosevelt will by proclamation formally announce Mr. Cleveland's death.

Governor Cox Turns Loose Nine Sick and Crippled Convicts

FRANKFORT, KY., June 24th.—Ten convicts in the Frankfort Penitentiary were pardoned late this afternoon by Acting Governor W. H. Cox and will be released tomorrow. They are members of what the guards at the Prison call "Cox's Army," with one exception, George West, who has been a prisoner for twenty-two years without a mark against him.

Nine of the prisoners pardoned are crippled or diseased and four are blind. This is the largest number of convicts pardoned at one time in the last thirty years, or since Governor Blackburn turned loose one hundred and fifty at one time.

"I was a great sufferer from female troubles, and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound restored me to health in three months, after my physician declared that an operation was absolutely necessary."

Mrs. Alvina Sperling, of 154 Cleybourne Ave., Chicago, Ill., writes: "I suffered from female troubles, a tumor and much inflammation. Two of the best doctors in Chicago decided that an operation was necessary to save my life. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound entirely cured me without an operation."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration. Why don't you try it?

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

the Jacksonian cry

"To the victors

alienate that large wing of the Democracy which believed in a high tariff for the support of American industries was greeted by the British press with profound admiration. Eminent political economists in the United States declared this message to be one of the ablest of presidential papers. The president's stand for reductions in the tariff on a "revenue only" basis was the subject of much discussion pro and con for many years following.

Mr. Cleveland received the Democratic nomination for president in 1888, but was defeated in the election by Benjamin Harrison of Indiana. Many Democrats attributed his defeat to his tariff message of 1887. After Mr. Harrison's election and the consequent trade of criticism from members of the president's own party Mr. Cleveland sent for the speaker of the house of representatives, John G. Carlisle, a Democrat, and said to him, "If every other man in the country abandons this issue, I shall stick to it."

Accordingly in the last message of his term he "stuck to" his stand on the tariff problem, urging congress in 1889-90 to enact laws in line with his suggestions of the winter before.

Cleveland retired to private life March 4, 1893, and settled in New York city for the practice of the law. He was not particularly active in politics after his retirement.

In the meantime history was making. Harrison and high tariff were in the saddle. The McKinley act of 1890, increasing the tariff on wool, tin plate and other products, was followed by high prices for the poor man's necessities of life. Events rapidly were shaping themselves toward a vindication of Grover Cleveland. The ex-president attended to his law work, and the people did the rest. With the politicians, as of old, mostly in opposition, the Independent Democratic voters forced the selection of Cleveland delegates to the national Democratic convention of 1892, held in June. "Four more years of Grover" was the campaign cry. Though the New York delegation opposed him, Mr. Cleveland was nominated for the presidency the third time in succession on the first ballot. President Harrison again was his Republican opponent. Cleveland was elected, receiving 277 electoral votes against 145 for Harrison and 22 for General Weaver, Populist.
